Refined Exploration

The Great Wall of China

A VOYAGE LIKE NO OTHER

There have been global circumnavigations before, but nothing quite like Insignia's 180-day journey departing Miami on January 8, 2020. Though visiting an impressive 95 destinations in 38 countries with an indulgent 17 overnight port visits, her ambitious odyssey is much more than the sum of its celebrated ports. Transit the newly-expanded Panama Canal, round Cape Horn and, for the first time on an Oceania Cruises world voyage, explore Alaska and the Aleutian Islands. Circle South America from the cloud-kissed ruins of Machu Picchu to the samba beat of Rio de Janeiro, encounter Africa's magnificent wildlife, and explore the pagodas and tea houses of Japan. And if your sense of exploration is as boundless as our imagination, choose from curated itinerary options embarking in either Miami or San Francisco and ranging up to 200 unforgettable days.

Insignia sails across 18 shimmering seas and 27 time zones. Along the way, our gracious service will be your comfort, The Finest Cuisine at Sea™ your nectar, and the Canyon Ranch® Spa your rejuvenation. Ensconce yourself in the luxuries of Oceania Cruises and awake each day to new delights revealed just for you.

Pleasures of the Palate

THE FINEST CUISINE AT SEA™

Sailing around the globe offers the chance to sample some of the finest cuisine in the world at the very best shoreside restaurants. Sailing around the globe with Oceania Cruises means you will enjoy equally exquisite cuisine on board the ship. Inspired by the legendary Master Chef Jacques Pépin, our Executive Culinary Director, the talented chefs on board Insignia create culinary masterpieces. From Continental classics and gourmet vegan dishes at The Grand Dining Room to authentic Italian cuisine at Toscana to perfectly prepared steaks and seafood at Polo Grill, the options are nearly endless. Of course, a voyage of this scale must take full advantage of the opportunity to celebrate world cuisines, so an array of special events will highlight authentic local fare. Enjoy delicious Japanese delicacies and fresh sushi at Terrace Café while charting the Sea of Japan, or a colorful Carnaval-style deck party as you sail along Brazil, Land of the Palms. Regardless of the region, a plethora of specially curated culinary experiences awaits you.

Savor Every Moment

LIFESTYLE

While the impressive worldwide destinations are quite naturally the star attraction on this extraordinary voyage, you are certain to enjoy the rich and varied ambiance aboard Insignia. You might lose yourself in deep relaxation with a heavenly massage or signature treatment at the Canyon Ranch SpaClub®. Or perhaps you will be inspired by the creative workshops at Artist Loft. Meanwhile, the putting greens on the upper deck make for an ideal location to practice your swing and take in the gorgeous vistas. Gather together with friends for cocktails at Martinis, enjoy teatime at Horizons or try your luck at the Monte Carlo-style casino. On days when you wish to simply relax, the plush English-style library or a Balinese daybed poolside offers the perfect retreat during this wonderful journey.

Enrich, Enlighten and Energize

ENTERTAINMENT

A wonderful spectrum of entertaining and enriching activities awaits you on board, many designed to further enhance your experiences ashore. A bevy of experts will share personal insights on the history, arts, culture and cuisine of the fascinating ports of call you will explore, so you can experience each to its fullest. Other special guests will be on board to help celebrate the pure joys of cruising. Spend days at sea improving your bridge skills with a master of the game or join a lively trivia contest with friends. Listen to a talented pianist interpret a classic concerto or learn the secrets of regional cuisine from a local chef at a special culinary demonstration. Spend the evenings enjoying colorful high-energy production shows and critically acclaimed headline entertainers, socializing with friends or dancing the night away at Horizons.

THE WORLD LESS TRAVELED

A globe-roaming voyage is the grandest of prized travel experiences, and for the very first time Oceania Cruises has woven together Alaska, Mexico, South America, Asia, and Africa into a magnificent worldwide tapestry that crosses the equator a remarkable four times. Watch whales cavort in Alaska's glacial bays, among Cabo San Lucas' rock formations and in the quiet majesty of the Chilean Fjords. Feast with gauchos in Patagonia, stroll the haunting streets of Beijing's Forbidden City, and soar above Peru's ancient Nazca Lines. Sail under the Golden Gate Bridge, through the Panama Canal, along Alaska's exquisite Inside Passage, around the tips of both Africa and South America, and through the limestone karsts of Vietnam's Ha Long Bay. Search for rhinos, hippos and giraffes in game reserves in Africa, and with nine ports of call in Japan, discover the enduring legacy of the samurai. From the serpentine Great Wall of China and transcendent Machu Picchu to the dazzling Volcanoes of Kamchatka and the solemn Hiroshima Peace Memorial, an extraordinary 67 UNESCO World Heritage sites illuminate your route.

Aomori

Santa Barbara

enticing NEW PORTS

AOMORI, JAPAN

Aomori seamlessly blends the ancient and contemporary, with prehistoric ruins from settlers more than 6,000 years ago ingeniously reinterpreted in the architecture of its 21st-century art museum. Nearly destroyed during World War II, the city retains its Edo Period grid pattern, but modern angles now define the skyline. The port is dominated by the Aomori Bay Bridge, which offers great views of both the city and the harbor. After exploring the museums and markets, venture into the forested mountains of the countryside to relax at the caldera lakes and natural hot springs created by the island's volcanic geology.

DUTCH HARBOR, ALASKA

Located on Amaknak Island and linked via bridge to Unalaska Island within the volcanic Aleutian Islands chain, Dutch Harbor is a place of historical significance, natural beauty and resilient people. The Aleut people had inhabited these islands for more than 8,000 years when the first Russian fur traders arrived in 1759. Today historic sites recall the region's storied past, while gentle mountains, scenic beaches and sparkling bays provide a picturesque setting for hiking ancient trails, observing bald eagles, fishing for salmon or beachcombing for sea glass.

HAKODATE, JAPAN

In 1854 Hakodate became Japan's first port to open to foreign trade as the country's era of isolationism came to an end. The influx of traders and merchants from Russia, China and Western countries imprinted the city with a mélange of cultural styles. The Goryokaku Fort, built to defend Japan from foreign imperialism became the final battle site when the Meiji government defeated the Tokugawa shogunate in 1869. Now a public park, the fort is perfect to start your explorations, which will take you from traditional Japanese markets selling Hakodate shio ramen to neighborhoods where the Russian Orthodox Church stands just blocks from the Chinese Memorial Hall.

OARAI, JAPAN

Known for long stretches of pristine beach, a large aquarium and an oceanfront shrine, this seaside town draws visitors who love all things coastal. Try some fresh seafood while you're here, such as a rice bowl with raw sardines served with ginger and soy sauce. Caught just offshore, the young sardines must be eaten the same day as they are caught, and thus they draw gourmets from around Japan. A short jaunt inland to Mito is also worthwhile, as this prefectural capital is home to one of Japan's three great gardens, Kairakuen. The garden has more than 3,000 plum trees, which herald the arrival of spring when they bloom.

PETROPAVLOVSK-KAMCHATSKY, RUSSIA

Accessible only by air or sea, the remote city of Petropavlovsk-Kamchatsky is surrounded by what UNESCO describes as "one of the most outstanding volcanic regions in the world." The snowcapped peaks of Koryak and Avacha loom directly behind the city, and the terrain is so mountainous one cannot see the horizon from any point in town. Admire the majestic landscapes from several vantage points: an ATV excursion to the base of an active volcano, a challenging hike to a summit or a helicopter ride through the clouds. Museums and a bevy of monuments tell the story of Russia's most easterly city.

SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA

Known as The American Riviera, Santa Barbara is nestled between the picturesque coastline of its southern shores and the verdant Santa Ynez Mountains. The warm Mediterranean-like sun illuminates the red-tiled roofs and adobe façades of the Spanish Colonial architecture, including the grand Old Mission founded by Spanish settlers in the 18th century. Take a stroll through Shoreline Park, along Stearns Wharf or down hip State Street. Renowned art and history museums, wine-tasting rooms, seaside cafés and boutiques provide endless entertainment. Just over the mountains, in the fertile Santa Ynez Valley, you can tour award-winning wineries.
